ern Brokers Duey Finds Tney Believe Standard Oil Responsible for Slump.

After spending about six weeks raveling through the east on his sumvacation Harry Duey, member of he well known firm of brokers, returned to the city Sunday morning, and last evening left for Hachita, N. M., from which point he will go to the property of the Anderson Apache Company, in which he is a heavy stockholder and one of the directors, When seen by a Review reporter and asked concerning financial conditions in the east, as well as the opin ions of the prominent brokers of that section of the country in regard to the ecent slump in the market. Ducy

"From all I could learn the condiions in the money market in all of the big eastern centers does not differ in the least from its condition right here in Bisbee-it is very tight, and there is no definite prospect of its becoming better in the near future. Al-though there seems to be a great deal of money, those who have it are keeping it well in hand, fearing that the long threatened contest between the big corporations and the federal administration will bring about a con-dition of affairs wherein every available dollar will be necessary for immediate use.

"In regard to the stock market, those brokers with whom I conversed, in Chicago, seemed to hold different opinions, some thinking that it would improve steadily, while others were firmly convinced that no radical change will come either way until the government succeeds in bringing the big corporations into line, so that public confidence will be restored, without which no change for the better can be expected.

"Talking of the recent slump the majority seemed to be of the opinion that out of revenge the Standard Off crowd hammered the market, and which has been instrumental in scor-ing a $29,240,000 fine against them.
